High School Board Elects

At a meeting of the County High School Board Wednesday morning in this city Prof. R. M. Grills of Dyer county was elected Principal of the Fayette County High School for the next year, beginning his term of service July 1, the school to open its session in September. With Prof. Grills the following faculty was elected: M. L. Cozine, Agriculture, Mrs. Anna D. Mosby, Latin and History, Mrs. R. L. Jones, English, Mrs. Robinson, Home Economics.

Prof. Grills has been for years Principal of the public high school at Trimble in Dyer county and has served several terms as County Superintendent of that county. The principalship of the local school was offered him last year, but his patrons at Trimble raised his salary in order to keep him there. He is known by local citizens to be one of the best school men in the entire state and comes to his work here after a most successful experience of several years. He has a wife and several children.

All the other members of the high school faculty elected have served the past year and their re-election proves a satisfactory service, except Mrs. R. L. Jones, who has been Principal of Warren School, and comes to the County High School as a new member of the faculty. She has taught successfully for a number of years and is one of the county's best known women.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and deep appreciation to our friends, neighbors and relatives for their sympathy, love, and kindness extended to us during the illness and death of my husband and our father, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Moscow

An audience which filled to overflowing the handsome edifice of the local M. E. Church here Sunday night, were delightfully entertained with a service by the children each of whom rendered their respective parts in splendid fashion, even to the youngest a child two years of age. The flower drill, and poppy drill by the groups of the younger girls proved an interesting feature of the service while each piece was well said, especially did the younger boys and girls face the large audience and plainly speak their respective pieces. Great credit is due the Superintendent R. N. Ware and his able assistants, Mrs. Ethel Simmons, Mrs. Leo Wright and Miss Inez Rich for their thoughtfulness and patience in preparing these little ones for this service. The occasion is the more worthy for the reason that such affairs tend to lead these precious little ones toward a better and more useful life and the Master will bless those who put forth such admirable effort to train these dear ones in a manner which made it possible for us older ones to be entertained in so interesting and uplifting a way.

The writer of this article is grateful to those having this service in charge for the chance to enjoy with the little ones, the fruits of their untiring efforts and we trust other parents appreciate the affair in a like manner.

Mrs. Gertrude Cocke and Miss Margaret Roach are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Roach.

Miss Helen Ware entertained Sunday Miss Stroup of Grand Junction.

W. C. Moore, one of our genial attaches at the local depot visited friends in Middleton the past week.

We are glad to note the clean up spirit among some of our citizens. We regret that this spirit is not general.

At a meeting of the local board of Mayor and Aldermen held Friday night, W. L. Jewell was elected to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of W. I. Cowart on the board of Aldermen. Mr. Cowart's act was made necessary by being now located at Middleton.

Rev. J. L. Horton delivered a most interesting and elevating sermon Sunday morning at the local M. E. Church, his subject being "Poison Tongues." The word of the Pastor hit many, if not all, who heard the discourse and should cause us to guard that loose member—the tongue.

Miss Inez Boswell spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Boswell. Joe Bing, he cut 10 cords of wood from rise to set of sun; He cut it, an' he piled it, too; Yes, sir, that's what he done, To cut 10 cord o' wood, I vow, Is one tremendous chore— Joe; Bing cut his behind the stove, In a local grocery store.

Help For China

Gov. Taylor of Tennessee is calling on the people of the state to give recognition to the need, the distressing cry of China. Sunday, May 15, is the day set apart by the Governor in which he is asking the people to give consideration to this. An apportionment of $100,000 is asked of our state and that is very little compared with the wealth in our bounds. You are asked to deny yourself some luxury and keep one person alive till harvest.

Six million people for whom starvation is waiting in the northern provinces of China, which are so difficult of being reached because of poor facilities of transportation, cry for a crust, three cents a day to keep one person alive. How many will you be interested in saving?

In accordance with the call of the Governor the churches will join in a union service at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, 8:00 P. M. Rev. Mace of the Baptist church will preach. Express your interest by your presence and gifts.

Somerville Agriculture Club

Some of the accomplishments of the agriculture classes of the Fayette County High School during the past year.

Since September 15th. the agriculture classes have completed a shop, the material which was granted by the High School Board. The boys built the shop under the supervision of Prof. M. L. Cozine, the agriculture instructor.

The shop has been well equipped with both blacksmith and carpenter tools and other equipment necessary to carry on the shop work of the essential jobs to be done on the farm.

Even though the boys have built this shop they have not neglected their books. The theoretical as well as the practical forms a part of the agriculture course. They have accomplished much in judging and classifying horses, sheep, cows, hogs and poultry.

They have planned and built self feeders for hogs, A-shaped hog houses and have gained a working knowledge of farms and farm methods.

We might say right here that Dr. J. H. Gillmann has shown a lively interest in the boys by giving them the benefit of professional lectures on Tuberculosis in cattle, hog cholera, and various other subjects and by taking them out to the farms and giving practical demonstrations in the control of these diseases.

We wish to extend a hearty invitation to the boys of Fayette County who expect to attend school next fall to come to Somerville and take the course in at the High school. This course is doing much to raise the standard of farming in this county.

We assure you that it will be an interesting study and that it will be time well spent.

Watch for the next issue of The Falcon, in which will appear an account of the organization of our club.

Book Club

On Tuesday afternoon the Craddock Book Club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ernest Bullock and Mrs. Lim Blalock at the former's beautiful colonial home "Hatchie Hall."

The guests were received by the charming hostess, in the spacious reception hall which decorated in ferns and spring blossoms.

Mrs. Ozier mother of Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Belton of Memphis, sister of Mrs. Blalock graciously arranged the guests at card tables where Rook and Five Hundred were enjoyed for two hours.

A delicious salad and ice course was served and the guests were very laudatory in their praise of Mr. Bullock's angle food cake.

The prizes were won by Miss Bernice Lipsky and Mrs. H. C. Moorman for the most number of punches. Both winners received dainty guest towels for their hard work.

After a short business meeting the guests decided that "Parting is a sad sorrow but don't prolong it until tomorrow" and these all went away happy to have been present at such a lovely party.

Why Boys Leave the Farm

"Why did you leave the farm, my lad? Why did you bolt and quit your dad? Why did you beat it off to town? And turn your poor old daddy down? Thinkers of platforms, pulpit, press Are wallowing in deep distress; They seek to know the hidden cause Why farmer boys desert their pa's. Some say you long to get a taste Of faster life and social waste; Some say you silly little chumps Mistake your suit cards for your trumps In waging fresh and germless air Against the smoky thoroughfare, We're all agreed, the farm's the place; So free your mind and state your case 'Well stranger, since you've been so frank, I'll roll aside the hazy ban, The misty clouds of theories, And show you where the trouble lies. I left my dad, his farm, his plow, Because my calf became his cow, I left my dad, 'twas wrong of course, Because my colt became his horse, I left my dad to sow and reap Because my lamb became his sheep I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork, Because my pig became his pork, The garden truck that I made grow, 'Twas his to sell but mine to hoe. Its not the smoke in the atmosphere Nor the taste of life that brought me here Please tell the platform, pulpit, press No fear of toil nor love of dress, In driving off the farmers' lads But lust the method of their dads." ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Somerville Citizen

The public endorsement of a local citizen and the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Somerville adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills.

W. H. Leach Sr., merchant S. Main St., Somerville, says: "I had an attack of the grip, and I think it left my kidneys weak. I suffered from attacks of backache and the trouble was always worse in cold weather. I also had dizzy spells. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box, and began to use them. It didn't take Doan's long to entirely cure me and I gladly recommend them."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Leach had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs. Adv.
